Assemblyman Paul Koretz adopts Fairfax High School for “Free Cash for College Day”

In partnership with Los Angeles Mayor James Hahn, the LA Area Chamber of Commerce, and the Los Angeles Unified School District, Assemblyman Paul Koretz (D-West Hollywood) will adopt Fairfax High School on Saturday, February 1st, for “Free Cash for College Day.” Close to two hundred students and parents are expected to attend this event in order to receive help and information on available financial aid and how to navigate the application processes.

Free Cash for College Day is part of a statewide effort designed to provide free, professional assistance to families completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid and the Cal Grant GPA Verification Form. This event will take place at Fairfax High School and 48 other Los Angeles Unified School District high school sites on the same day.

Assemblyman Paul Koretz is committed to supporting education and helping as many students as possible continue with higher education. “I want to thank the Mayor, the LA Area Chamber and LAUSD for spearheading this program. I am proud to adopt my alma mater Fairfax High for the day and I hope that through this event students will find ways to finance their education, especially students who didn’t think they would be able to afford to continue with their education,” said Koretz.

Fairfax High School is located at 7850 Melrose Avenue in Los Angeles and the event takes place on Saturday, February 1, 2003 from 10 am – 4pm.
